

The Big 50

50 Unifrog activities you can complete in under 10 minutes.
You'll need computer access for most of these. No computer? No problem! Look at The Big 50 Offline.

Using the Careers Library, find an unusual career within the NHS - not something obvious!

Share three facts about it with your partner.

Use the Know-How Library to find out 3 facts about Ivy League Universities in the US.

Think about 1 extra-curricular activity you have completed in the last year and discuss it with your partner.

Log it in your Activities tool!

Find a business apprenticeship near you that offers a degree level qualification.

What salary does it offer?

Find out the starting salary for an architect.

What would a highly experienced architect get paid?

Which degree courses could you complete in order to become an Environmental Consultant?

Hint: The Careers Library is such a handy Unifrog tool...

Go to the Know-How Library and into the 'World of Work' section.

Read 'How to work out your take home pay'

Find a subject that interests you in the Subjects Library. Click on the Geek Out section of that subject.

Watch one of the TED talks!

Search for a career that interests you
in the Careers Library.

Write down 3 interesting facts about that career.

Find a career with a starting salary that is between £20,000 and £30,000

What are the UK prospects for that job?
(This is the amount of projected jobs in the future)

If you were to study English at university, which careers could you go into?

Try to find an unusual career!

Create a UK university shortlist!

Find an unusual career within the Armed Forces using the Careers
Library.

Share it with your partner!

Choose one of the Activities you have logged on Unifrog. Which skills did you build from it?

Log one of those skills in your Competencies tool.

Watch:

Writing Like a Boss - The Personal Statement

Create an Apprenticeship shortlist!

Research how to interview like a boss.

What are the four steps you should follow?

Hint: It's great having the Know-How library available!

unifrog

Find the 5 common Oxbridge misconceptions.

What are they?

What is a MOOC?

Can you think of 3 reasons why they could support an Apprenticeship or University application?

Use the Know-How Library to research studying in Hong Kong.

Find 3 interesting facts to share with your partner!

Go to the Know-How Library and read ‘Why Study in the Netherlands?’

Find 3 reasons, and share with your partner.

Use the Subjects Library to research Graphic Design.

Find 5 careers you could go into with this degree.

Research a career that interests you
in the Careers Library.

Which qualifications would you need to get into this career?

Search for a course that interests you in the MOOCs tool.

Create a MOOC shortlist.

Log one activity in your Activities tool.

Which skills did you build from this?
Log them in the Competencies tool.

Open an Apprenticeship or University shortlist you have previously made.

Choose one course or apprenticeship to research further.

Add one of your logged competencies to the Competency section of your CV.

Read the 'University vs. Apprenticeship' guide.

Can you find 2 pros and 2 cons for each side?

Read and watch the 'Open Days' guide and video in the Know-How Library.

Come up with 3 reasons why open days can help you with your university choices.

Find a career in the Careers Library that interests you.

‘Favourite’ it, so that it stays on your careers dashboard.

Read the 'Degree Apprenticeships and why you should take them' guide in the Know-How Library.

What are the advantages of completing a degree apprenticeship?

Read and watch the 'Acing Your CV' guide and video in the Know-How Library.

Share two tips with your partner to create a great CV.

Find and name the skills required to be a Newspaper or magazine editor.

Search in the Subjects Library for a university course by using the 'search by school subjects' function.

Try putting your favourite subjects in and see what comes up!

Research careers related to the subject of Modern Languages

Find an usual career within this subject area and share it with a partner.

Go to the Apprenticeship section of the Know-How Library and read:
'Higher Apprenticeship, Degree
Apprenticeship and School Leaver Programmes'

What are the differences between them?

Look at the activities you have logged in your Activities tool. Which skills did this help you to build?

Log one of these skills in your Competencies tool.

Find a career that has an apprenticeship route into it.

Tell your partner 3 facts about that career.

Make a university shortlist for a course that interests you in non-UK universities.

Have a look at shortlists you have previously made. Choose one course or apprenticeship in particular that interests you and research it further.

Have a look at the first section of the Personal Statement tool and click 'edit'. Share with your partner two examples of what you could write about in this section.

The second section of your personal statement should make up approximately how many characters of the whole statement?

What should you not do in your personal statement?

Use the Know-How Library to find out what a Canadian 'Letter of intent' is and when you might need one.

How many countries feature in our European Universities section of the Know-How Library?

Can you name them all?

Which two types of exams can you take to get into US universities?

What are the differences between
them?

Use the Know-How library to find out what a BMAT is and why you might need one.

Find 5 differences between the UK university and US university application processes.

Find 3 reasons to study in Spain.

Share them with your partner!

What is Harvard university's total wealth?

You'll have to search hard for this one!

Go back to your MOOC shortlist and choose a MOOC that interests you.

Click on the link in the PDF to start studying!